Keeping you informed

This leaflet provides you with details of our mortgage fees and charges and other important information about how your mortgage works. We'll review these fees and charges from time to time, and if we change any of them, we'll give you reasonable notice of the changes.

Application and valuation fees

These are fees that are charged when you apply for a new mortgage or additional lending from us.

Application fees

Application fee

An application fee may be charged to cover some of the costs associated with the mortgage application on certain types of mortgage products. The amount depends on the type of product applied for and will be contained in your Mortgage Illustration and confirmed in your Mortgage Offer. When applying for a new mortgage with us, this fee is payable on application.

This fee is not refundable.

Product fee

A number of our mortgage products include a product fee. This fee is charged at the start of a new mortgage product. The amount depends on the type of product applied for and will be contained in your Mortgage Illustration and confirmed in your Mortgage Offer. Usually, we'll offer a choice of products with different fee sizes and typically a mortgage product with a higher product fee attracts a lower interest rate. When applying for a new mortgage with us, this fee is either deducted from the advance (loan) or added to the loan. This fee is not refundable.

Funds transfer fee

£8.00

A charge is made when transferring mortgage funds electronically.

Valuation fees

Mortgage valuation

We will instruct a valuation once we've reviewed your application. The valuation is for our benefit only and used to confirm whether we can lend on the property. Please note a physical inspection of the property may not be required.

A valuation fee may be charged in accordance with the scales shown on pages 6 to 9. Where a fee is applicable, it can be paid by credit/debit card or cheque. This fee is not refundable.

In certain circumstances we may choose to use alternative methods to ascertain the value of the property. If a fee is charged for using one of these alternative methods, we will let you know in advance of your Mortgage Offer documents.

Additional lending valuation fees

A valuation will be required when applying for additional lending. There are a number of ways we can determine the value of your property, one of which is a Present Day Valuation (PDV). When you apply for additional lending we'll select the valuation type most appropriate to your application.

Present day valuation (PDV)

This inspection is carried out for our benefit to determine whether a property continues to provide good security for the loan. This is similar to the valuation carried out when the property was purchased. Only PDVs conducted by our panel of valuers are acceptable. This fee is not refundable.

If you apply to transfer to a different mortgage product (product transfer) or port (move) your existing mortgage product to a new property, an application fee may be charged. The amount of the fee will be determined by the terms and conditions of your current mortgage product. For details of these fees please refer to your Mortgage Offer. This fee is not refundable.

Other fees and important information

Arrears and unpaid/returned payments fees

These fees (and any reasonable expenses we're able to recover, e.g. solicitors' costs and other expenses incurred by the solicitors) will be added to your account where they apply.

As your mortgage is on a daily interest scheme, if you don't pay these fees in the month they're added to your account, you'll be charged interest on them from the beginning of the following month.

Unpaid/returned Direct Debit or cheque £5.00

If a Direct Debit is returned unpaid, we'll write to you so you can take appropriate action. If it's returned unpaid again, then a charge will be made. In the case of a cheque, we'll write to tell you if it has been returned unpaid, and the charge will be made at that time.

Unpaid ground rent £50.00

Where a mortgage is secured on a leasehold property it's usual for the freeholder to charge ground rent or other fees as part of the lease. If the agreed ground rent or other related charge is not paid, we'll investigate any claim made by the freeholder and may settle the outstanding amount by adding the amount to your mortgage account. A fee is charged to cover the work involved in processing this investigation.

Arrears fee £20.00

If your mortgage falls into arrears we'll write to advise you. In the event that further arrears accumulate and reach the equivalent of two months' regular payments, a charge will be made. No charge will be made when you've agreed an arrangement with us to repay any arrears and have adhered to this arrangement.

Arrears arrangement breakdown £25.00

This fee will be charged if you break an arrears arrangement agreed between you and us.

Placing an arrears account with a solicitor £90.00

This charge covers costs incurred by us when preparing papers prior to court proceedings, and the instruction of a solicitor to act on our behalf. The costs of our appointed solicitors and enquiry agents will vary and will be charged in addition to this fee. We'll pay these costs (including court fees and other expenses incurred) and add the amount to your mortgage account.

Warrant fee £95.00

To cover the costs of monitoring a case as a result of instructing our solicitors to enforce a Court Order.

Reposessed properties £260.00

When a reposessed property is sold by us and a net surplus remains after your outstanding mortgage balance has been repaid, a charge will be made to cover our administration costs in relation to the sale.

Sundry debits

We may also charge sundry debits to the mortgage account (for example unpaid ground rent or service charges due, which we've had to pay, or the cost of repairs to a property where we've taken possession), and these will incur interest from the day they are debited to the account.

How we can help if you're in financial difficulty

If you're experiencing any financial difficulties, or cannot pay your full monthly amount, please contact us immediately on 0800 121 8765. This line is open from 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday and 9am to 12 noon on Saturday. The sooner we discuss the matter, the easier it will be for both of us to find a solution. We'll develop a plan with you to help resolve your situation. You can also find free help and advice from debt counselling organisations such as the Citizens' Advice Bureau, Money Advice Centres or StepChange Debt Charity.

Redeeming your mortgage

Mortgage exit fee

When you've fully paid off (redeemed) your mortgage we charge a mortgage exit fee, as shown in your Mortgage Offer. This fee will be waived if there is less than one year left to run on your entire mortgage at the time of redemption. The fee amount is fixed for the term of your mortgage, except where you ask us to arrange a further advance, product transfer or transfer of equity (when, if applicable, it will change to the prevailing fee at the time). This fee is refundable if you take your next mortgage with Godiva Mortgages Limited within six months of redeeming the original mortgage account.

Redeeming or part repaying your mortgage

If you repay your mortgage in full or in part by cheque, we'll charge an additional three days' interest on the payment to cover the time it takes for your cheque to clear. If you're making this payment using cleared funds or payment from a Coventry Building Society savings account, this charge will not apply.

Redeeming or part repaying your mortgage with early repayment charges

If you repay all or part of your mortgage, you may be required to pay early repayment charges. These charges are made to recover the cost incurred by us for the initial benefit you received on your current mortgage product. For details of these fees please refer to your Mortgage Offer.

Personal loan fees and charges

If you already have a MOREgage product, the following also applies to the unsecured loan part of your mortgage.

Missed or unpaid/returned Direct Debit or cheque £5.00

A charge is made in the event of a Direct Debit, standing order or cheque being returned unpaid.

Paying a fee or charge

If you're making a payment of a fee or charge, you should contact us to discuss how it will be paid.

Calculation of interest

We calculate and charge interest using our daily interest product method as explained below.

Please note that on redemption (full repayment) of your mortgage, interest will be charged to the date of repayment. Special arrangements apply to Lifetime Mortgages and if you would like more information on this type of mortgage please call us.

Daily interest scheme

Interest is charged to the mortgage account on the first of each month, based on the number of days in the coming month and the balance outstanding (including unpaid interest) on the last day of the previous month. Interest is also charged, as mentioned overleaf, on debits (sums added) to your mortgage account during the month.

When you make your regular monthly payment, or any additional amount is paid into your account, we'll adjust the interest charged based on the payment amount and the number of days remaining in the month (including the day on which the payment is credited). For example if your payment is received on 20 January, 12 days' interest credit will be given.

Interest charged on debits (sums added) to your mortgage account

All advances, including a new mortgage advance, further advances, stage advances or retention releases will incur interest from the day they are debited to the account. Please refer to the fees sections of this leaflet for details of when fees added to your loan will incur interest.

If there is a change to the interest rate on your mortgage we'll recalculate the interest charged at the time the interest rate changes.

Repaying extra

The extra amount you choose to pay will determine whether your extra payment is treated as a capital repayment or an overpayment. If you're considering making extra payment(s) on your mortgage please contact us first to discuss your options.

Working out if your extra payment will be a capital repayment or an overpayment

The extra amount you choose to pay will determine whether your extra payment is treated as a capital repayment or an overpayment.

If the equivalent of three times your normal monthly payment is £1,000 or more then:

- Any extra payment of at least three times your monthly payment will be treated as a capital repayment.
- Any extra payment less than three times your monthly payment will be treated as an overpayment.

If the equivalent of three times your normal monthly payment is less than £1,000 then:

- Any extra payment of £1,000 or more will be treated as a capital repayment.
- Any extra payment less than £1,000 will be treated as an overpayment.

How we apply a capital repayment

If you have an interest-only mortgage, your capital repayment will reduce the balance of your mortgage. This will then reduce the interest we charge and therefore your regular monthly payments will go down from the following month onwards.

If you have a repayment mortgage, your capital repayment will reduce the balance of your mortgage and this in turn will reduce the interest we charge. You can then choose to either reduce your regular mortgage payments from the following month onwards, or reduce the term of your mortgage, which means you'll pay off your mortgage in a shorter period of time. If you'd like further information, please contact us and our advisors will be happy to help you.

You must let us know how you would like us to treat your repayment.

If you don't provide us with specific instructions we'll use your last instruction, if less than 12 months old. If you haven't given us an instruction in the last 12 months, we'll treat your extra payment as an overpayment regardless of the value (please see how we apply an overpayment below).

If your mortgage account is split into a number of different parts – we call these 'sub-accounts' – you must let us know which sub-account you'd like us to apply your capital repayment to. Your mortgage account is likely to be split into sub-accounts if you've taken out a further advance or your mortgage consists of both interest-only and repayment – please refer to your annual mortgage statement for details of this.

It's important that you let us know which of your mortgage sub-account(s) you want to credit the capital repayment to. If you don't give us specific instructions we'll treat your extra payment as an overpayment regardless of the value (please see below). We'll credit the payment between sub-accounts as we reasonably consider appropriate, subject to any regulatory requirements. If you would like more information about how we've processed your payment, please ask us.

How we apply an overpayment

As your mortgage is on our daily interest scheme we'll credit your overpayment to your mortgage account immediately, which means you'll be charged less interest overall. However, we won't treat this as a capital repayment unless you specifically ask us to and the terms and conditions of your mortgage allow it. Therefore, your payments will not automatically be recalculated.

If your mortgage is split into sub-accounts (as explained above), and you don't tell us which sub-account(s) you would like us to apply your overpayment to, we'll credit the payment between sub-accounts as we reasonably consider appropriate, subject to any regulatory requirements.

If you'd like more information about how we have processed your payment please call us.

Please remember that additional payments are subject to your existing mortgage terms and conditions which may include an early repayment charge (changing your mortgage). If your mortgage account is in arrears, additional payments may be processed differently from the ways described above.

YOUR PROPERTY MAY BE REPOSSESSED IF YOU DO NOT KEEP UP REPAYMENTS ON YOUR MORTGAGE.
