

Coventry Building Society's Young Writer of the Year competition 2025

I came home from school and there was a mystery box at the end of my bed.
I couldn't believe what was inside...

I shouted to my brother "Come here I found a box. I wonder what is inside? maybe some pizza" So I opened it and it was pizza. I shouted "Yay"! But the pizza looked weird. It didn't look like a normal pizza it had weird particles coming off it. Suddenly me and my brother got sucked into the mystery box and we were in a weird pizza land! There were pizza people. The pizza people started to walk closer to us. Suddenly, we magically got pizza swords and it looked like we needed to fight. The army of pizza people charged straight at us. We were scared. We turned and ran for our lives! My brother shouted across to me and said "we need to tell them quick!" I took my brother's pizza sword and turned around with the two swords in the shape of an X above my head and yelled "Stop"! the army of pizza people came to a halt right in front of us. I nervously put my hand in my pocket and pulled out some pineapple and said "Heres a new topping for you because pineapple does belong on pizza". That was great timing as I can hear my mum shouting from the kitchen "Kids dinner time it's pineapple pizza". The END.

Coventry Building Society's Young Writer of the Year competition 2025

Would you like to go on an adventure to go some were fantartic?

